48 HOURS MYSTERY: "In Too Deep" - a followup to "In Too Deep" (OAD: 01/22/08), presenting a further examination of the story of Laura Hall, who was convicted and sent to prison for the crime of dismembering the body of Jennifer Cave in 2005. As previously detailed, she admitted to going to the apartment of her boyfriend Colton Pitonyak, at his request, and was confronted with the dead body of Cave in the bathtub. She then -- out of fear for her own life, she says -- drove Pitonyak, at his insistence, to Mexico. After their arrest, Hall was interrogated and charged with hindering the apprehension of Pitonyak. At his own trial, Pitonyak implied that Hall took part in the dismemberment of Jennifer Cave's body after her death. Put on trial for this crime, and for helping Pitonyak escape, she was found guilty and sentenced to five years in prison. However, after 17 months in jail, Laura Hall was released because a court ruled that her sentencing hearing wasn't fair. Her conviction was upheld and she is out on bond while prosecutors fight to put her back in jail. She could be sentenced to more time or released. And Pitonyak's new lawyer, says that they have new evidence and that Hall is also responsible for the murder. At Hall's new hearing, the judge rules against her: she's going back to jail. Her sentencing is set for May 2010, where she faces up to ten years in prison. Unless he wins a new trial, Pitonyak will be eligible for parole in 2033. Update for the 12/18/10 rebroadcast: In June 2010 Laura Hall was sentenced to confinement in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice for a period of ten years. Onscreen graphics update: Colton Pitonyak's case is still under appeal. Laura Hall's projected release date is March 26, 2014. She will be 30 years old. 07/02/11 Onscreen graphics update: Colton Pitonyak's case is still under appeal. Laura Hall is scheduled to be released from prison in 2018. 48 HOURS MYSTERY SPECIAL PRESENTATION: "Casey Anthony: Judgement Day" - a followup to "The Untold Story of Caylee Anthony" (OAD: 10/17/09) and "Only Casey Knows" (OAD: 04/16/11). Caylee Anthony was a 2-year-old who went missing in 2008, only to be found dead six months later near her grandparents home in Orlando, Florida, where she resided with her 22-year-old mother Casey Anthony, who was eventually brought to trial. Today, after deliberating for 10 hours, the jury in the trial of Casey Anthony found the Florida mother not guilty of first-degree murder, aggravated child abuse and aggravated manslaughter. She was found guilty of four lesser charges of providing false information to a law enforcement officer. The broadcast includes footage of testimony from the trial and reaction to the verdicts. Interviewed: Linda Kenney Baden, former member of Casey Anthony's defense team; Florida Attorney General Pam Bondi; Defense Attorneys Jose Baez and Cheney Mason; Louis Schlesinger, forensic psychologist; Richard Gabriel, defense trial consultant; Sherri Adgie, Shawn Chaisson and Matthew Bartlett, people who waited online to get tickets and attended the trial. Bartlett landed in jail for a hand gesture he made towards prosecutor John Ashton in the courtroom. Also included is footage from "The Untold Story of Caylee Anthony" (OAD: 10/17/09) and "Only Casey Knows" (OAD: 04/16/11). Onscreen Graphics: Casey Anthony will be sentenced on Thursday. She faces a maximum of four years in prison. Because she's been in jail for three years already, Casey may walk free. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Body of Lies" (9:00-10:00p) - In the fall of 2006, after two failed relationships that resulted in the birth of her daughters Ashlyn and Tyler, 31-year-old Leisha Hurst seemed to be getting her life on track. While attending Barstow College, studying to become a teacher, she began dating fellow student, 34-year-old Jeami Chiapulis, who bragged about being a war hero and cancer survivor. Chiapulis seemed to be the man she could finally settle down with. The couple had plans to marry when Hurst vanished on January 22, 2009. The next day, Hurst's abandoned car was found 50 miles south of her Barstow, California home, in the town of Hesperia. After denying he and Leisha were in a relationship, Chiapulis admitted to investigators that he was married to Army Lieutenant Colonel Katherine Taylor. He was also involved in a relationship with another Barstow student, Joyce Fransson. When searching his home, police found receipts for items he had recently purchased that could be used in disposing of a body. Leisha's brother took a photograph of rubber gloves and a shower cap that he found near the location of his sister's disappearance. He gave the photograph to the police and the gloves and shower cap to Chiapulis. Chiapulis then gave the gloves and a shower cap to the police. They compared them to the photograph and realized that he had given them a different pair of gloves and a different colored cap. Chiapulis had checked himself into a mental ward; upon checking himself out, he was arrested by the police. Leisha's body had still not been found and the police realized they might be forced to make a deal with Chiapulis to recover her body. In exchange for a reduced sentence, Chiapulis would admit to killing Leisha and reveal where he had buried her body. Her body was recovered on October 8, 2009 and Chiapulis was sentenced to fifteen years to life in prison. He implicated his girlfriend Joyce Fransson, telling the police she was with him when he buried Leisha. Fransson admitted she was with him when he buried a trash can in the desert, but she denied knowing its contents. She was brought to trial on July 26, 2010. After one day of trial, the judge unexpectedly offered her a plea deal, which she accepted. Onscreen graphics: While in prison, Jeami Chiapulis allegedly tried to hire a hitman to kill Joyce Fransson, Detective Keith Libby and Leisha Hurst's two daughters. Chiapulis will face murder-for-hire charges next month. Police say his wife, Army hero Lieutenant Colonel Katherine Taylor, had no knowledge of his double life. She annulled the marriage in December 2009. Ashlyn and Tyler are being raised separately by their fathers. 07-09-11 Updated onscreen graphics: Chiapulis will face murder-for-hire charges on July 27. Joyce Fransson is slated for release from prison this summer. Interviewed: Lynn Hurst, Leisha's father; Debbie Welch, Leisha's mother; Ashlyn and Tyler, Leisha's daughters; Detective Keith Libby from the Barstow Police Department; Jaime Tatro, who once dated Jeami Chiapulis; Joyce Fransson, Jeami's girlfriend; District Attorney Sean Daugherty. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Temptation" (10:00-11:00p) - In June 2007, Dewayne Barrentine, a single father with an 8-year old son met Tausha Fields, a single mother with a 5-year-old daughter, Lexie, and soon after they began living together in Marianna, Florida. Tausha told him some unbelievable stories about herself - that she had a criminal justice degree and a promised inheritance from a Federal judge. He went online to verify her stories and found a marriage certificate which showed she had been married to Mitchell Wayne Kemp. His online searching also led him to one of Tausha's previous boyfriends, Keith Jones, who said Tausha told him she had lured one of her ex-husbands to a farm where he was murdered. Barrentine continued his online investigations and discovered that Mitchell Wayne Kemp had been missing since August 2004. He brought this information to the police and they believed they were dealing with a homicide. They brought Tausha in for questioning and at first she denied knowing about Kemp's whereabouts. Eventually she said that Kemp had been murdered by another of her ex-husbands, Greg Morton. She helped them search Morton's farm and they uncovered Kemp's body. An autopsy revealed that he had been shot six times in the chest. The police believed that Tausha was involved in his murder. Three weeks later police arrested Morton and charged him with first degree murder. They were hoping he would implicate Tausha. He remained silent. Fearing Tausha might run, they arrested her also and charged her with first degree murder. She claimed that Morton shot Kemp in a jealous rage, and Morton claimed that it was Tausha's idea and that she had planned the murder so she could have full custody of Lexie. In return for a reduced sentence to second-degree murder, Morton agreed to testify against Tausha at her July 2010 trial. The trial hinged on the word "lure" which was used in testimony by Tausha's ex-boyfriend Keith Jones. After eight hours of deliberation, the jury found Tausha guilty of first degree murder. She will spend the rest of her life in prison. Onscreen text graphic: Mitch's brother and his family are legal guardians of Lexie. Tausha Fields is appealing the verdict. Greg Morton will be eligible for parole in 2024. He will be fifty-six years old. 07-09-11 Updated onscreen graphics: Greg Morton will be eligible for parole in 2022. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Long Island Serial Killer" - a report on the disappearance of professional escort Shannan Gilbert, near Gilgo Beach, New York. The search for Shannan led to the discovery of a total of ten bodies in the scrub brush of Gilgo Beach, Long Island, New York, leading police to suspect the work of a serial killer. The other identified bodies included: Melissa Barthelemy, Amber Costello, Megan Waterman, and Maureen Brainard-Barnes, all who had been working as escorts, advertising their services on Craigslist. After police found and identified the previous four women, they discovered more bodies and body parts along the beach. Possible suspects include: Joseph Brewer, who hired Shannan; Michael Pak, Shannan's driver, who took her to Brewer's house; and Peter Hackett, a retired emergency services doctor who called Shannan's mother a few days after she went missing. The families of the victims have embraced Shannan's family as they all wait for the killer to be found. Interviewed: Sherre and Sarra Gilbert, Shannan's sisters; Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dormer; Attorney Robin Sax who was hired by the Gilbert family to help with the investigation of Shannan's disappearance; Gus Colletti, whose house Shannan ran to for help, resident of Oak Beach and neighbor of Joseph Brewer; Andrew Strickler, a crime reporter with Long Island's Newsday; Lynn Barthelemy, Melissa's mother; Steven Cohen, the Barthelemy family attorney; Vernon Geberth, retired New York City homicide commander; Dave Schaller, Amber Costello's roommate; Lorraine Ela, Megan Waterman's mother; and Melissa Cann, Maureen Brainard-Barnes' sister. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets, Lies and Alibis" - On August 22, 2004, John and Susan Sutton had a family get together in their Coral Gables, Florida home, that included their son Christopher, his girlfriend Juliette Driscoll, and Teddy Montoto, John's law partner and friend. Afterwards, when Teddy had left and John and Juliette had gone to a movie, John and Susan retired to separate bedrooms -- Susan often slept in the second room because John snored. Sometime later in the evening, a gunman entered their bedrooms and shot both of them several times. Susan was killed, but John survived. Nothing was taken from the house -- not money, nor jewelry. There was no doubt that this was a premeditated effort to make sure that they were dead. Police interrogation of Teddy Montoto revealed that he had been having an affair with Susan, but further investigation eliminated him as a suspect. Interviews with some of John's closest friends suggested that the Suttons' son, Christopher, should be investigated as a suspect. He had been sent to a behavioral program, Paradise Cove, on the Polynesian islands of Samoa, when he was 16. He claims he was abused there and tried to tell his parents about it, but they didn't believe him, and he was kept there until he was 19. He became the prime suspect. After checking his cell phone records, authorities noticed more than 300 calls to his friend Garrett Kopp, who had been arrested less than 24 hours after the Suttons shooting for attacking someone else with a gun. That turned out to be the same gun that was used to shoot the Suttons. Kopp told police that he was hired by his friend Christopher Sutton to kill his parents. Christopher's then-fiancée Juliette Driscoll told the police that Christopher had a deep-seated resentment towards his parents for sending him to Samoa. She said he often spoke of how great their lives would be if his parents were dead. Garrett Kopp and Juliette Driscoll testified against Christopher in court. Christopher claimed that Kopp had gone to the Suttons' house to steal marijuana and that Driscoll testified against him because she had been threatened by police. After a day and a half of deliberations, the jury found Christopher Sutton guilty of first-degree murder as charged. He was sentenced to life in prison with no possibility of parole. Onscreen graphics: Christopher Sutton is planning to appeal his conviction. Hit man Garrett Kopp is scheduled to be released in 2035. John Sutton vows he will fight to keep Kopp and his son Christopher behind bars. Interviewed: John Sutton; Melissa Sutton, Christopher's sister; Mary Marier, Susan Sutton's sister; Rosanna Cordero, Miami-Dade Detective; Larry Belyeu, lead Detective; Christopher Sutton; Erik Polk, friend of Christopher; Randy Rogers, who was at Paradise Cove with Christopher; Juliette Driscoll, Christopher's fiancée; Kathleen Hoague and Carin Kahgan, prosecutors; Bruce Fleisher, Christopher's attorney; Mitchell Kopp, Garrett's father. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "One of Their Own" - a report about how and why decorated female Los Angeles Police Detective Stephanie Lazarus was charged with the 1986 murder of Sherri Mae Rasmussen. The victim, newly married to John Ruetten, Lazarus' ex-boyfriend, was attacked, beaten and shot to death in her Los Angeles home. Police pursued a robbery motive, even though the only things missing were her car and her marriage certificate. For more than two decades, her father, Nels Rasmussen, has been on a frustrating quest to find out the truth about his daughter's murder. Believing that Sherri's husband, John Ruetten, was not involved, he says he has tried many times to get the police to focus on John's ex-girlfriend Stephanie Lazarus. Sherri had told her family that Stephanie was still obsessed with John and believed that Sherri had stolen John away from her. Recently, the LAPD cold case squad quietly re-opened the case. A piece of evidence -- a saliva sample taken from a bite mark on Sherri's arm -- was sent to a DNA lab. The results indicated that it belonged to a woman, and led police to suspect one of their own: Stephanie Lazarus. Finally Nels Rasmussen felt that police were listening to him. Detectives trailed Stephanie Lazarus to obtain a DNA sample and the results were stunning: the DNA from Sherri's bite mark and that of Stephanie Lazarus matched. In a covert operation, a team planned her arrest and in June 2009, Lazarus was charged with first-degree murder. Her trial is expected to begin shortly. Onscreen text graphic: If convicted, Stephanie Lazarus could face life in prison. A judge ruled out the death penalty. 07/19/11 Updated onscreen text graphic: Stephanie Lazarus's trial is set for August. Interviewed: Andrew Blankstein and Joel Rubin; Sherri's sister Teresa; Nels and Loretta Rasmussen, Sherri's parents; Jayne Goldberg, Peggy Crabtree, Sherri's friends; Mark Overland, Lazarus' attorney; John Taylor, the Rasmussen's attorney; Alan Tarsky, Sherri's neighbor; Burt Luper, a retired LAPD detective who is now on Lazarus' defense team; Steven Lazarus, Stephanie's brother. 48 HOURS MYSTERY - "The One Who Got Away" - a report about how serial killer Andrew Urdiales was identified, arrested and convicted, and about the young woman who became the only one of his victims to survive. Between 1986 and 1996, Andrew Urdiales attacked, tortured and killed eight women, first in California and then in Illinois. His first victim was Robbin Brandley of Mission Viejo, California. In 1992, he charmed 19-year-old Jennifer Asbenson, potentially his ninth victim, who accepted a ride from a seemingly kind stranger and was then driven into the California desert, where she was tortured, made to perform sexual acts and strangled, then put in the trunk of his car. Summoning all the strength she had, she escaped and found safety when a passing truck stopped and rescued her. Urdiales disappeared. In 1997, Chicago police were interested when they received a tip from a prostitute that a client had wanted to tie her up, place her in the trunk of his car, and then drive her out to Wolf Lake. Prior to the tip, the bodies of three other women had been discovered in the lake, all killed with the same gun. The client turned out to be Andrew Urdiales and the gun used in the murders belonged to him. Chicago police brought him in for questioning and Urdiales matter-of-factly confessed to eight unsolved murders in Illinois and California, including Robbin Brandley's and the attack on Jennifer Asbenson. Fifteen years after her attack, Jennifer Asbenson faced Urdiales in a Chicago courtroom; a jury convicted Urdiales and sentenced him to death. California authorities must wait until the appeals process is completed in Illinois, before they can begin their proceedings against him. Onscreen graphic: Andrew Urdiales remains on death row in Illinois. Jennifer Asbenson is writing a book about her life. 07/23/11 Text Graphic Update: In March 2011, Illinois abolished the death penalty. Andrew Urdiales's death sentence was commuted to life in prison. Urdiales will be extradited to stand trial for the murders in California. He could still face the death penalty. Interviewed: Jennifer Asbenson, Genelle and Jack Reilley, Robbin Brandley's parents, Jayeson Brandley, Robbin's brother, Helen Moreno, supervising investigator with the Orange County DA's office; Howard Gundy, Orange County Deputy Attorney, Palm Springs Lieutenant John Booth; Chicago Homicide Detective Don McGrath; Cook County Assistant State's Attorney Jim McKay; Jennifer Asbenson's daughter Augusta. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Killer Defense" - a report on the 2007 murder of Jennifer Turner, married but separated from North Carolina dentist, Dr. Kirk Turner, due to his infidelities with the family banker, Tondja Colvin. Kirk and Jennifer still maintained a lucrative horse farm, but Jennifer had filed for divorce and also brought an alienation of affection suit against Tondja. Their separation also divided the family: daughter Wendy sided with her mother and son Richie chose to live with his father. Jennifer refused Kirk's requests to drop the lawsuit against Tondja and the separation soon became acrimonious. Jennifer feared for her life. On the night of September 12th, Greg Smithson, a family friend who had also done work at the horse farm, asked Jennifer if he could pick up some equipment and bring Kirk along to help. Jennifer agreed. All three of them went to a shed on the property to load equipment. When the conversation between Jennifer and Kirk became personal, Greg excused himself. Soon after, Greg heard screams from the shed. He found Kirk stabbed in the leg by a seven-foot-long decorative spear and Jennifer motionless on the floor. 911 instructed Greg to perform CPR on Jennifer, but she died, having been nearly decapitated. Prosecutors believed that Kirk intended to kill Jennifer and staged the spear attack. Kirk claimed that Jennifer became enraged when he presented an affidavit from her ex-husband, claiming that her first marriage nearly twenty-five years earlier had failed because of her obsessive love of horses and alleging that she had been unfaithful -- and used his pocket knife to defend himself only after she attacked. He was put on trial for first degree murder, with Smithson's testimony playing a key role for both sides. Prosecutors rebuked his testimony and doubted that he had performed CPR on Jennifer. After testimony from a forensic scientist and Kirk himself, the jury found Kirk Turner not guilty by reason of self defense. Wendy still maintains her father's guilt. 07/26/11 Onscreen text graphic: After the trial, the State Bureau of Investigations blood spatter unit was suspended for improperly handling evidence in this case and others. Because Kirk Turner was acquitted, there was no further impact on his case. Turner settled a wrongful death suit out of court. Interviewed: Wendy and Richie Turner, children of Jennifer and Kirk; Susan Doran, Linda Ernst, Anne Gould, and Tara Whittaker, Jennifer's friends; Greg Smithson, friend of Jennifer and Kirk; Joe Cheshire and Brad Bannon, Kirk's attorneys; Greg Brown, prosecutor; Rob Taylor, prosecutor; Johnny Marks, lead investigator for the prosecution; and unidentified members of the jury. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Preacher's Wife" (9:00-10:00pm) - In April 2006, Matt Baker, a pastor from Waco, Texas, returned home to find his wife Kari unconscious, with an empty bottle of Unisom and a suicide note beside her. Paramedics arrived within minutes, but it was too late. Based on the note, the empty bottle of sleeping pills, and the fact that Kari was described as still struggling with the loss of her daughter Kassidy seven years ago, police ruled it a suicide. In a county with no medical examiner, police described the case over the phone to a justice of the peace, who determined that no autopsy was needed. Kari's parents, Jim and Linda Dulin, had no choice but to believe Matt. However, Linda's sisters, Nancy, Kay, and Jennifer, and niece Lindsey believed otherwise. Dubbed "Charlie's Angels", they began their own investigation. After uncovering a possible motive, Linda hired Bill Johnston, a dogged former federal prosecutor, had her daughter's body exhumed and autopsied, and filed a wrongful death suit against Matt. Five months after Kari's death, the justice of the peace declared that her death was no longer classified as a suicide and police subsequently arrested and charged Matt with murder. Believing Matt would be tried in criminal court, Linda dropped her wrongful death suit. After six months, the district attorney still hadn't taken Matt's case to a grand jury -- a requirement under Texas law. Linda eventually refiled the wrongful death suit, shortly before attorney Guy James Gray filed a successful motion to dismiss Matt's criminal case, as a grand jury indictment had not been returned within 180 days. Matt Baker is no longer charged with any crime, though the district attorney continues to investigate and could refile criminal charges. There is no statute of limitations for murder. Update for the 06/09/09 rebroadcast: On March 25, 2009, a grand jury indicted Baker for the murder of his wife, after a surprise witness -- Vanessa Bulls, a girlfriend of his -- came forward and testified. He will go on trial in September. Graphic postscript: Baker was released from jail on $250,000 bond, pending trial. He's again living in Kerrville, Texas, with his parents and daughters. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Dirty Little Secrets" (10:00-11:00pm) - a followup to "The Preacher's Wife" (OAD: 05/10/08; 1st rebroadcast and update on 06/09/09; 2nd rebroadcast on 10/30/10; 3rd rebroadcast on 07/30/11). In April 2006, Matt Baker, a pastor from Waco, Texas, returned home to find his wife Kari unconscious, with an empty bottle of Unisom and a suicide note beside her. Based on the note, the empty bottle of sleeping pills, and the fact that Kari was described as still struggling with the loss of her daughter Kassidy seven years ago, police ruled it a suicide. Linda Dulin, Kari's mother, was convinced she had been murdered and set out to prove it by hiring attorney Bill Johnston and his team of investigators, who had Kari's body exhumed and autopsied. Five months after Kari's death, the justice of the peace declared that her death was no longer classified as a suicide. In September 2007, the police felt they had a homicide on their hands and Matt Baker was arrested and charged with murder. He was released on bond, thanks to attorney Guy James Gray, who took the case pro bono. However, six months later, assistant district attorney Crawford Long dropped the murder charges because the evidence was too speculative. Unwilling to give up, Linda Dulin decided to again sue Matt for wrongful death. Bill Johnston, assistant district attorney Long and prosecutor Susan Shafer continued to investigate. Armed with new information and damning testimony provided to the grand jury by Vanessa Bulls, a woman long suspected of having an affair with Matt before Kari's death, prosecutors were able to arrest Matt and charge him with murder. At the trial, it was revealed that Matt told Vanessa how he planned to murder Kari, the reason why, and even the exact date, but Vanessa chose not to notify the authorities. After seven hours of deliberation, the jury found Matt Baker guilty of first-degree murder. He was sentenced to 65 years with the possibility of parole. Matt still insists he did not kill his wife. The Bakers' daughters live with Matt's parents, where they want to stay. Kari's parents are now fighting for custody of the girls. Onscreen graphics: In January a jury will decide who will get custody of Kari Baker's daughters. No charges will be filed against Vanessa Bulls. After testifying, she lost her job as a teacher. Matt Baker is appealing the verdict. Interviewed: Linda Dulin, Kari's mother; Linda's attorney Bill Johnston; Texas Ranger Matt Cawthon; Assistant District Attorney Crawford Long; prosecutor Susan Shafer; investigator Abdon Rodriguez; Guy James Gray, Matt Baker's attorney; and Matt Baker. Updated text graphic for the 07/30/11 rebroadcast: Two weeks ago a jury awarded sole custody of the girls to Kari's parents, Linda and Jim Dulin. 48 HOURS MYSTERY - "Name, Rank, Serial Killer?" - a report on Colonel Russell Williams, a highly-regarded Canadian military officer, and a crime spree that began with a series of bizarre thefts of lingerie and ultimately led to the discovery that he was a serial killer. In 2007, a series of crimes occurred in and around the town of Tweed, Ontario, where Col. Williams lived. In 2009, Laurie Massicotte, one of Williams' neighbors, was sexually terrorized in her home. Shortly afterwards, Marie France Comeau, a corporal at Trenton Airbase, where Williams was stationed, was beaten, raped, and suffocated to death. There were no leads in either case. Two months later, Jessica Lloyd went missing in the nearby town of Belleville, and authorities discovered their first solid clues: tire tracks and boot prints. In 2010, Col. Williams was stopped at a random roadblock. Police noticed his tire tracks matched the ones found near Jessica Lloyd's home. He was brought in for questioning and the ensuing battle of wits between the colonel and Det. Sergeant Jim Smith, the police interrogator from the Ontario Provincial Police, would uncover the details of his chilling double life. After nine hours of interrogation, he confessed, and told police where they could find videos of the crimes. The most surprising evidence however, were the trophies Williams kept to commemorate his crimes: thousands of underpants, bras and camisoles, found in his garage, and photos of him modeling the items. Authorities also found child pornography on his computer. In a deal that almost fell apart over the pornography issue, Williams pleaded guilty to the murders of Comeau and Lloyd, to two sexual assaults and to eighty-two counts of breaking and entering -- the bizarre underwear thefts that started it all. The judge sentenced him to the maximum, life behind bars, which he is serving at the penitentiary in Kingston, Ontario. Although the Canadian government stripped Williams of his rank, burned his uniform and crushed his car, he got to keep his air force pension. Concluding onscreen graphic: Laurie Massicotte is planning to sue the Ontario police for failing to protect her from Russell Williams. Onscreen text graphic for the 08/02/11 Rebroadcast: Russell Williams' first assault victim is suing for 2.6 million dollars in damages. Laurie Massicotte is also suing Williams for damages; and she is suing the Ontario provincial police for failing to protect her. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Every Picture Tells a Story" - On February 15, 2009, Cathy McNaughton was stabbed to death in her home in Sharpsburg, Georgia. The day had started with her husband Alec serving her breakfast in bed. He said he then went to visit his mother in Sandy Springs, Georgia, about an hour away. When he returned home, he says he found his wife in a pool of blood. As the victim's husband, he was a suspect, but he had an alibi. Another suspect was Cathy's former husband, Gary Mendenhall, who had been in town that day. He also had an alibi. Alec claimed to be at his mother's house until the evening. He said that he had called Cathy at 2:30PM from his mother's house, but records showed the call originated from a cell phone tower only two miles from his house in Sharpsburg. He also claimed that he made a 911 call while kneeling down next to Cathy's body, but he had no blood on him. Alec's friends and family members started calling police to say they were afraid of him and that he was abusive. Alec's first wife, Linda, said he had beaten her and that is why they were divorced. Police discovered a secret file about Alec that Cathy kept in the closet. There were disposable cameras with pictures of a bruised and battered Cathy. Alec was arrested, but the prosecutor could not show these pictures to the jury until they found the photographer. Their investigation led them to Sandra Harmon, who had been a counselor at Delta Airlines where Cathy had worked. Cathy told her that Alec had attacked and beaten her the day before, and she asked Sandra to take pictures of her injuries. Prosecutors were now able to present these pictures as evidence. Another previous wife said that Alec had pulled a shotgun on their daughter and threatened to kill their daughter, her and himself. During the trial Alec took the stand and denied everything his accusers said about him. The jury found him guilty of murder and he was stunned by the verdict. Onscreen text graphic: Alec McNaughton was sentenced to life in prison. McNaughton is now represented by a public defender and is planning an appeal. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Dog Trainer of Anacortes" (9:00 - 10:00pm) - Part one of a two part report on the October 2009 death of Mark Stover, a professional dog trainer. Recently divorced from Linda Opdycke, Stover still operated their lucrative business, "Island Dog Adventures" on Kiket Island, Washington, which they had founded in the early 1990's. Linda, now living elsewhere in Washington state became involved with Michiel Oakes, a weapons expert she had originally hired to analyze her security situation, based upon the fact that Mark had been charged with stalking Linda ever since she initiated their separation. In 2009, Mark moved his dog training business to Anacortes, Washington. Linda and Michiel, now romantically involved, believed that Stover was obsessed with their relationship, as well as with the children from Michiel's previous marriage. On the morning of October 28, 2009, an employee of Mark's arrived at his business and discovered traces of blood in the driveway, Mark's white station wagon missing, and Mark's dog Dingo, shot three times in the face. Based upon a report of trespassing involving two vehicles, one a white station wagon, the other a black SUV, police apprehended the SUV, only to find the driver was Michiel Oakes. The following day, Michiel was arrested at Linda's home on suspicion of murder, after he attempted to dispose of a pistol. Interviewed: Andrea Franulovich, client and friend of Mark's; Vickie Simmons, Mark's sister; Linda Opdycke, Mark's ex-wife; Nancy Corbin, Linda's mother; Danny Jensen, man who claims that Mark threatened him with a gun; Sheriff Frank Rogers; Chief Deputy Dave Rodriguez; Ruthie Hagemeister, Linda's neighbor; Julia Simmons, Mark's niece; Michiel Oakes; Amanda Oakes, Michiel's daughter; Teresa Vaux-Michael, Mark's fiancée; Leigh Hearon, private investigator; Amber Baker and Stephanie Poor, Mark's employees; Tami Gilden, Mark's neighbor; Jennifer Thompson, Michiel's ex-wife; Sergeant Gene Davis. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Dog Trainer, the Heiress and the Bodyguard" (10:00 - 11:00pm) - Part two of a two part report on the October 2009 death of Mark Stover, a professional dog trainer. Michiel Oakes was charged with the murder of Mark Stover. Michiel claimed that Mark had invited him to his house on October 28, 2009 and that the shooting was in self-defense because Mark pulled a gun on him. After the shooting, Michiel removed Mark's body from his house and drove to the home of his ex-wife, Jennifer Thompson. Jennifer told police that Michiel implied that he had been hired by someone as a hitman to kill someone. Linda Opdycke briefly spoke to police the night Oakes was arrested, but the next day she refused to answer any questions on the advice of her attorney. Oakes was freed on bail, he and Linda were forbidden by court order to see each other or communicate. During the trial, Oakes testified in his own defense. Linda Opdycke testified that Mark Stover could be very dangerous. During her testimony, prosecutors told her if Oakes was found to be acting in self-defense, then she herself would not have any liability. Linda told them that she did not have any liability in this case. Prosecutors have never charged her with any crime. After four days of deliberation, the jury came to a unanimous verdict. Michiel Oakes was found guilty of premeditated murder. He was given the maximum sentence of 26 years, with no chance of parole. The case is still open and Linda Opdycke has not been charged with being an accomplice. Onscreen graphics: Vickie Simmons has posted a $50,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of accomplices in her brother's murder. Michiel Oakes is appealing his conviction. Stover's dog, Dingo, survived her gunshot wounds, but died months later of cancer. Interviewed: Dan Luvera, lead detective; Vickie Simmons, Mark Stover's sister; Leigh Hearon, private investigator; Linda Opdycke; Amanda and April Oakes, Michiel's daughters; Corrie Oakes, Michiel's mother; Michiel Oakes; Stephanie Poor, employee of Mark; Jennifer Thompson, Michiel's ex-wife; Julia Simmons, Mark's niece; Teresa Vaux-Michael, Mark's fiancée; John Henry Brown, defense attorney; Rich Weyrich, prosecutor; Meghan Mataya, employee of Mark; Jurors Heidi Toussint, Tom Jenkins; Judge Mike Reichardt. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

08/20/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Hannibal Unmasked" - A report on the separate disappearances in 2003 of three young women in the Denver, Colorado area, and the investigations which not only eventually discovered the one individual who had known all three women, but led to his conviction as the killer of the three. His victims included 19-year-old Kaysi McLeod, a recovering drug user, who left home in August 2003 after a confrontation with her mother, Lori. When Kaysi didn't show up for work two days later, and police wouldn't allow a missing persons report to be filed (Kaysi was over eighteen and there was no evidence of foul play), Lori turned to her boyfriend and eventual husband, Scott Kimball, who claimed to work for the FBI. Kaysi never was found. Seven months before Kaysi disappeared, Howard Emry's 24-year-old daughter, LeAnn, had also vanished. LeAnn had been in a relationship with an inmate named Steven Holley. Jennifer Marcum, too, vanished shortly after visiting her prison boyfriend, Steve Ennis. Family members of both women also went to authorities, but leads in the investigation went nowhere. Then an FBI agent contacted Jennifer's family and told them that Jennifer had been killed by her boyfriend's drug associates. This information came from the agent's informant, Hannibal, a.k.a. Scott Kimball. In the fall of 2006, Rob McLeod, Kaysi's father, learned of Jennifer Marcum's disappearance through a newspaper article. Both Rob McLeod and Bob Marcum learned of a connection to Scott Kimball. Together, both fathers went to the FBI and revealed their suspicions. After a lengthy investigation, it was determined that Kimball was responsible for the deaths of the three women and that of his uncle, Terry Kimball, who had visited Kimball and mysteriously disappeared. In 2008, a skull was recovered by the FBI from a national forest, where it had been held for months after its discovery by a hunter during the winter. DNA analysis identified it as the skull of Kaysi McLeod. With Kimball sentenced to 48 years for his recent non-violent crimes, prosecutors wanted him to be convicted for his murders, so a deal was offered -- no charges of first-degree murder -- if he would lead authorities to the remaining bodies of his victims. The bodies of LeAnn Emry and his Uncle Terry were recovered; Jennifer Marcum's body has never been found. In October 2009, Kimball pleaded guilty to all of the murders and was sentenced to seventy years. Interviewed: Rob and Lori McLeod, Kaysi's parents; Kaysi's best friend Tabettha Morton; Howard Emry, LeAnn's father; Brent Pace, a Utah investigator and tracker; Lafayette, Colorado Detective Gary Thatcher; Bob Marcum and Jennifer Willis, Jennifer Marcum's parents; FBI Special Agent Jonathan Grusing; Boulder County Prosecutor Amy Okubo; lead Prosecutor Katharina Booth; Scott Kimball; and Jim Davis, now in charge of the FBI's Denver office. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

Crime
48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Full Moon" - On the night of August 28, 1996, Yvette Rodier and her friend, Zach Snarr, went up to the mountains outside of Salt Lake City, Utah for their first date. Their special plans to take pictures of the full moon were interrupted when a stranger drove up, pulled out a gun and opened fire, emptying every bullet out of his gun. Zach was killed. Yvette, who was shot four times, survived by pretending to be dead. Within days of the shootings, authorities caught 19-year-old Jorge Benvenuto, whose reason for the attack was for the thrill of watching them die. He expressed disappointment when he found out one of his victims had lived. It took Yvette three years and five operations to repair her physical injuries that still left her with permanent nerve damage. She faced her attacker in court. Prosecutors had planned to request the death penalty. Benvenuto asked for a plea bargain and, upon consideration, Zach's family agreed to this in exchange for a life sentence in prison without parole. Afterwards, Benvenuto filed several appeals, saying he had been depressed when he agreed to the plea bargain. He lost these several appeals. Yvette became a lawyer so she could help other victims. Onscreen graphics: Jorge Benvenuto lost his most recent appeal in 2007. It is probably his last. Narrated by: Yvette Rodier; Boris Degrande and Polly Wirum, hikers who helped Yvette; Sy Snarr, Zach's mother; Sydney Davis, Zach's sister; Detective Keith Stephens of the Salt Lake City Sheriff's Office; Bob Stott, Salt Lake City Prosecutor. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Fatal Choice" - On August 16, 2009, 56-year-old Sandra Franklin called police to report a violent confrontation with her husband at their Bainbridge, Ohio, horse ranch. Shortly after, authorities received a call from the victim himself, Dr. Peter Franklin, who had been stabbed in the chest. Within hours, Peter was dead and his wife was charged with murder. Shortly after their marriage in 2000, Sandra had fired Peter's longtime office manager and taken over the job herself. Peter then dropped his malpractice insurance, no longer accepted health insurance and moved his assets to Sandra in case he was sued. He also switched from family medicine to pain management and, according to law enforcement officials, dispensed an alarming amount of drugs and generated a lot of cash. His office was raided by State drug investigators in 2009, but no arrests were made. Sandra claims the stress of the investigation caused Peter to become violent. They were on the brink of divorce. Peter demanded his assets back and Sandra refused. During one of their many arguments, Sandra claimed that Peter threatened her life with a pen knife which he kept on his key chain. During the argument she grabbed a large knife from their kitchen and she stabbed Peter. She claimed it was self defense. She had scratches on her body, but the police believed they were self-inflicted. Sandra was charged with murder. Her trial began nine months after Peter's death. Her defense attorney said Sandra acted in self defense. After four days of deliberation, Sandra was found guilty of murder. At her sentencing three weeks later, Sandra still professed herself to be innocent of all charges. The judge gave her the mandatory sentence of fifteen years to life. Onscreen graphics: Sandra Franklin never collected on her husband Peter's life insurance policy. That policy and his estate, worth $1.5 million, went to his niece and nephew. Sandra Franklin will be eligible for parole in 2025. She will be 72. Onscreen text graphic for the 09/03/11 Rebroadcast: Sandra Franklin has appealed her conviction. Interviewed: Sandra Franklin; Liz Franklin, Peter's first wife; Bobbi Arters, Peter's ex-girlfriend; Sandy McDermott, Peter's office manager, who was fired by Sandy; Investigator Karen Sweet; Geauga County prosecutors David Joyce and Carly Snively; Sergeant Andy Kelley who questioned Sandra on the night of Peter's death; Steve Bell, Sandra's defense attorney. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "The Railroad Killer" - A report on the August 29, 1997 attack on two University of Kentucky students as they walked along the railroad tracks in Lexington, Kentucky. Chris Maier was killed by his attacker who then proceeded to stab, beat, and rape Holly Dunn, who miraculously survived her injuries. Fourteen months after Holly's attack, Dr. Claudia Benton was murdered inside her Houston, Texas area home, located near railroad tracks. Lexington Detective Craig Sorrell received a call from ViCAP, a national crime registry database, linking the crimes. Through fingerprint analysis, they identified Rafael Resendez-Ramirez as the suspect. After his arrest, he was ultimately identified as Angel Maturino Resendiz. His trial started in May of 2000 in Houston; he was found guilty of capital murder. Holly testified in the penalty phase of the trial and identified Resendiz in court. The jury decided he was a future danger to society and the judge sentenced him to death. He was executed in June of 2006. Holly chose not to attend the execution. She has dedicated her life to helping other victims and founded Holly's House, a child and adult advocacy center in Evansville, Indiana. Onscreen graphics: By the time of his execution, Resendiz was linked to at least fifteen murders in six states. Authorities learned he killed a teenage couple in Florida, just months before he attacked Chris and Holly. Narrated by: Holly Dunn; Heather Dunn Niemeier, Holly's sister; Chad Goetz, who called 911 to help Holly; Detective Craig Sorrell, Lexington Police Department; Drew Carter, Texas Ranger; Devon Anderson, Harris County Prosecutor. 48 HOURS SPECIAL: "Bullying: Words Can Kill" - an investigation into bullying and how the explosion of social media technology is only making it worse, as victims cannot find relief from their tormentors in a 24/7 digital world. For six months, 48 HOURS producers and camera crews were allowed in-depth access to the classrooms, cafeteria and gym at a North Providence, Rhode Island middle school that is one of the few in the United States that has openly acknowledged it has a bullying problem and has taken action to address it. Featured on the broadcast are: (1) Johnny Cagno, a bullying victim who attempted suicide at age 14, and whose case was a wake-up to social workers at the Rhode Island school and where countless more stories of bullying were discovered. (2) The Bullycide Project, which tells the stories of over 150 children who have taken their lives, rather than take another day of bullying, and Kevin Epling, whose son Matt, was a bullycide victim; (3) Cynthia Logan, who recounts how her daughter Jessica Logan, an Ohio teen, committed suicide because of cyber-bullying; (4) Ohio teen, Dara Genovese, who was a bullying victim for seven years. Interviewed are: Rhode Island teens Aislyn Doer, Jacob Kaufman, Genesis Johnson, Alexa Papgiotis, Tyree Berdecia; Liz Vachon, social worker; Tonianne Moniz, Assistant Principal; Kevin and Tammy Epling; Cynthia Logan; Samantha Bruce, Jessica Logan's best friend; Sarah Ramsey, a Logan friend accused of torment; Dara Genovese and her mother Toni Genovese. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The West Memphis 3 - Free" - a followup to "A Cry for Innocence" (OAD: 02/27/10), the story of three teenagers known as the "West Memphis Three" who were convicted of the brutal murders of three young boys in West Memphis, Arkansas, seventeen years ago. Damien Echols received the death penalty, while friends Jason Baldwin and Jesse Misskelley were sentenced to life in prison. As the case became well-known, musicians and actors came forward to lend their support, and an HBO documentary, "Paradise Lost", and a book by Mara Leveritt entitled "Devil's Knot", detailed flaws in the case, and forensic scientists challenged results. The Arkansas Supreme Court ordered a different judge to examine all the evidence, old and new, and decide if their should be new trials. The only hitch: everyone will have to wait another year. Now, in a stunning turn of events, the three men were all released from prison last month, agreeing to a rarely used legal procedure, called the Alford Plea, in which a defendant proclaims innocence and yet pleads guilty. Included in this follow-up are interviews with Damien Echols and his wife, Lorri Davis; Jason Baldwin; attorney Stephen Braga. On-Screen Text Graphic: As a condition of the plea, the West Memphis 3 had to agree not to sue the state of Arkansas. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Arturo Gatti's Last Fight" - a report on the mysterious 2009 death of world champion boxer Arturo Gatti. When Gatti was found dead in Brazil, police characterized the death as a homicide and arrested his wife, Amanda Gatti. She was never charged and three weeks later, released when authorities concluded that he had taken his own life. To this day, theories abound, with many who knew him not believing his death could be a suicide. Included in this report is the first television interview by Amanda Gatti about the night her husband died and about her life with the fighter. Brother Joe Gatti talks about his own theory into Arturo's death, and how he believes the death was indeed a suicide. The family, however, does not agree, and thinks Amanda Gatti was after money. They have hired private investigators Paul Ciolino and Joe Moura to investigate. The two believe Brazilian authorities botched the case and that Gatti was murdered and Amanda Gatti killed him. However, their case is not airtight. Amanda Gatti today, is still involved in a court case involving Gatti's assets. Text Graphic: Brazilian authorities say they will examine the private investigators' report on Gatti's death. The Canadian court still has not ruled on who gets Gatti's fortune. Interviewed are: his widow Amanda Gatti; brother Joe Gatti; friends and supporters: Tom Casino, "Irish" Micky Ward, Tony Rizzo, Gisella Minieara, Mario Costa, John Lynch and Pat Lynch; private investigators Paul Ciolino and Joe Moura; forensics experts Andre Stewart, Dr. Alfred Bowles, Brent Turvey.
